RORKE'S DRIFT LODGE KITCHEN

Our cuisine is mainly Traditional South African home-made fare that offers mouth-watering moments. We have chosen to share with you our traditions of "braai-ing" or BBQ. It is the norm for most South Africans to spend hours around the braai creating delicious variations of your normal and not so normal dishes. We are proudly South African and very excited to share with you our rainbow nation flavours!

With so many inspiring influences in just one country, we are inspired to change our menu on a regular basis to include as much as possible of this culinary journey we are on. We always strive to improve and offer the best traditional food with a modern twist.

Most dishes are served in portions for 2, providing convenience and no fuss freedom in choice. While you get to enjoy the left overs in the morning should you wish so. Your meals will be delivered on trays in serving bowls and platters by our friendly local Zulu assistants that are here to make your stay memorable and comfortable. Dishes will be collected in the morning when your unit is serviced.
